

Business Leadership Group Discussion & Application Guide

Walt Wiley, Getting it Done God’s Way -Session 1 of 4

Walt notes that “pressing on” doesn’t always carry a positive connotation. Determination, perseverance, grit, drive are associated with pressing on. In a work context, how do you value the concept of pressing on?

When you committed to run your business to God’s glory, did you face more or less challenges?

Write down one or two concepts from this session that could improve your business or personal life:

Select the item above that would make the most impact or warrants immediate attention in your personal or business life and answer the following questions:

1. Should I apply this concept or practice to my business or personal life?
2. Can I commit to a schedule to implement this application? [explain and discuss with the group, if necessary]

Comment:

3. Will I share with others the outcomes following implementation?

Development Objectives:
Life, Leadership, Excellence, Kingdom

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Php 3:14 MKJV

Business Leadership Group Discussion & Application Guide

Walt Wiley, Getting it Done God’s Way -Session 3 of 4

Calvin Coolidge’s statement: “...The slogan ‘Press on!’ has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race.” can be properly noted as hyperbole; but it does press some challenging thoughts. Have you ever seen a solution come to a challenging situation just after the point you were most tempted to throw in the towel?

Walt shared some powerful quotes and inspiring imagery. Share your favorite with the group and explain why.

Write down one or two concepts from this session that could improve your business or personal life:

Select the item above that would make the most impact or warrants immediate attention in your personal or business life and answer the following questions:

1. Should I apply this concept or practice to my business or personal life?
2. Can I commit to a schedule to implement this application? [explain and discuss with the group, if necessary]
3. How will I measure or evaluate the impact of these changes in my business or personal life?
4. When will I implement? ____/____/____

Comment:

5. Will I share with others the outcomes following implementation?

Development Objectives:
Life, Leadership,
Excellence, Kingdom

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Php 3:14 MKJV

Business Leadership Group Discussion & Application Guide Walt Wiley, Getting it Done God's Way -Session 2 of 4

Circumstances and Comparisons can put you at a crossroads where the best thing you can do is "keep moving" [press on] Walt uses Nehemiah as a superlative leader who personified perseverance. Review Nehemiah 4 and highlight at least one example of his perseverance that we could all profit from.

"Keep hope alive" is one of the main functions of a leader. Later in this talk, Walt shares that Winston Churchill's speech to the people of Great Britain that culminated with "Never, ever, ever give up!" was a turning point at the war's darkest hour. As a Christian business leader, what practical things do you do to maintain a wellspring of hope? [Share your thoughts]

Write down one or two concepts from this session that could improve your business or personal life:

Select the item above that would make the most impact or warrants immediate attention in your personal or business life and answer the following questions:

3. Should I apply this concept or practice to my business or personal life?
4. Can I commit to a schedule to implement this application? [explain and discuss with the group, if necessary]
3. How will I measure or evaluate the impact of these changes in my business or personal life?
4. When will I implement? ____/____/____

Comment:

-
-
5. Will I share with others the outcomes following implementation?

Development Objectives:
Life, Leadership,
Excellence, Kingdom

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Php 3:14 MKJV

Business Leadership Group Discussion & Application Guide

Walt Wiley, Getting it Done God's Way -Session 4 of 4

Walt's illustration from the amazing life of one of our most loved presidents is a great illustration of the concept of "failing forward." Can you translate his resiliency into inspiration to press on God's way? Explain

1. Name the event, situation or person that disrupted your intent to press on:

2. Pray about it.
3. Enumerate God's promises that apply and the times that He rewarded your perseverance.

Select the item above that would make the most impact or warrants immediate attention in your personal or business life and answer the following questions:

5. Should I apply this concept or practice to my business or personal life?
6. Can I commit to a schedule to implement this application? [explain and discuss with the group, if necessary]
3. How will I measure or evaluate the impact of these changes in my business or personal life?
4. When will I implement? ____/____/____

Comment:

5. Will I share with others the outcomes following implementation?

Development Objectives:
Life, Leadership, Excellence, Kingdom

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Php 3:14 MKJV